Scheduling A Private Puja

- All Archanas can be done on a walk-in basis, depend on priest availability. All other pujas and services to be performed at the Temple or at devotee's residence must be scheduled with the priest.
- Scheduling Puja at Temple or at Home: Discuss with Acharya the details of Puja, fill out the invoice and make payment at the time of scheduling or pay after the puja is performed. Pay dakshina to the priest and a travel allowance of $0.55 per mile for Home-puja.
- Cancelling a Puja: Cancellations should be done at the earliest possible. Rescheduling of Pujas depends on priests availability.
- Dakshina: Temple policy is that any offerings in the Aarathi-Plate in the Temple will go to the Temple Hundi. Dakshina to the priests in the Temple can be in the form of Cash/Check payable to priest.

Guidelines for the use of priest's services at the Temple or away from Temple

In order to better serve religious needs of devotees, help us by observing the following:

- Bring flowers, fruits and other puja articles per priest's instructions.
- Adhere to the time allocated to you by the priest to avoid overlapping of other scheduled pujas to follow.
- Leave the area clean to save priest's time and effort for other important duties of the Temple.
- If the puja is scheduled to be held at devotee's residence, everything should be ready by the scheduled time so that the priest can finish the puja on time and go on to the next scheduled activity.
- The Prasadam (or food) to be served in the Temple shall be prepared without Onion and Garlic.
